PRICE LIST, TERMS & CONDITIONS (August 2024)

One-to-one private tuition	£30 per hour
Private coaching can be booked as one-off sessions or in blocks and are currently delivered in Elgin. Blocks tend to adhere to the same day and time each week for several weeks. Blocks can be five through to ten weeks, usually dependant on the Moray school term calendar. Private coaching focuses on the individual – their technical needs, level of ability and ambitions. We can also look at nutrition, increasing fitness and/or physical recovery as well as mindset and game strategy. It is recommended to book a one-off session first ahead of a block booking to ensure the coach is suitable for the individual. Open to any age 6+.
Moray-based community groups, schools, amateur clubs	£40 per hour
Group coaching can be booked as one-off sessions or in blocks. Block bookings will be made to accommodate the need and want of each group; thus, distinct agreements will be made following initial contact. Group coaching focuses on team building – from listening and communication to practical skills including handling, technical diving, crossing, reaction times and passing. These sessions are approached as learning through fun. Open to any age and differing group sizing dependant on ages and facilities.
Moray-based semi-professional clubs, private institutions	£50 per hour
Coaching can be booked as one-off sessions or in blocks. Block bookings will be made to accommodate the need and want of each club/group; thus, distinct agreements will be made following initial contact. Sessions can be focused dependant on the need, want and ambition of each group. MA1N Goalkeeping is an independent business and welcomes working with any group or club at any level. These sessions are approached with a professional level of playing and thinking at the core of delivery.

Aside from the above MA1N Goalkeeping will also offer ad-hoc activities, from advanced workshops to entry style training. Set dates, times and prices will be shared via email and on social media as scheduled. Equally, if you do not see something advertised that you are interested in, please just ask to chat over options ***
